

THE FARMER'S COW ANNOUNCES 2010 SUMMER FARM TOUR SCHEDULE

Lebanon, Connecticut, June 3, 2010 – Members of The Farmer's Cow, local dairy farmers providing Connecticut-produced fresh milk, cream and other products, will be welcoming visitors to their farms during a number of events this summer. These free farm tours allow the public to see first-hand how The Farmer's Cow milk is produced, learn about farming, visit the cows, and experience all that local agriculture is about.

"We've been holding farm tours for the last few years and they are always a big hit with those who want to learn more about The Farmer's Cow and for those who just want to visit the country and see what life on a farm is really like," says Robin Chesmer, Managing Member of The Farmer's Cow.

Tour dates and locations are:

June 12, 12 pm – 3pm

Mapleleaf Farm, 768 Gilead St, Hebron

Come tour the farm, watch the cows being milked, meet the farmers, see the calves, and even sit on a tractor. Plus, enjoy refreshing milk and cookies.

July 17, 1pm – 3pm

Hytone Farms, 2047 Boston Turnpike, Coventry

Learn about modern dairy farming and tour a farm that's been in operation since 1944. See the cows and calves, learn about The Farmer's Cow and sample some of the milk along with cookies.

August 7, 1pm – 3pm

Cushman Farms Tour and Corn Roast, 393 Lebanon Rd, Franklin

A farm that's been in operation for six generations, see the rotary milking parlor, walk the barns and meet the cows that make the milk for The Farmer's Cow. Also enjoy sweet roasted corn grown right on the farm, along with fresh Farmer's Cow milk.

Information and directions for all of the farm tours is available on The Farmer's Cow website at www.TheFarmersCow.com. For more information call 866-355-COWS or email farmers@TheFarmersCow.com.
